

Invitation to Members of the Australia-Japan Society of NSW Inc
by Otani-san, Director of the AJS

Presentation of the 2nd Inoue Yasushi Award

Sponsor: the University of Sydney
Co-Sponsor: Japan Foundation of Sydney in conjunction with Australia Japan Society of NSW & Japanese Society of Sydney

In the presence of Consul General of Japan Mr Nobuhito Hobo

- Award Winner Speech [Winner to be announced on June 6th]
- Short Commentary: “My God Father” by Takuya Inoue –the second son of Inoue Yasushi
- Screening of Inoue Yasushi Original Film “FUURIN-KAZAN” Wind, Woods, Fire and Mountain

When: Friday 6 June 2008

Time: 6:00

Where: The Japan Foundation, Sydney
Shop 23, Level 1 Chifley Plaza 2 Chifley Square

Cost: Free - but you must make a reservation as places are limited.
Drinks and canapés.

Inoue Yasushi(1907-91)

Inoue Yasushi was one of the most famous and respected Japanese novelists in Post-War Japanese Literature. The Award, which will be presented, was established by the Inoue Yasushi Memorial Culture Foundation and established at the University of Sydney in 2006 to encourage Australian researchers, scholars and Ph.D students who are studying Japanese culture and literature.

In 2007, Dr. Aoyama of the University of Queensland was the inaugural recipient of the Award.

Booking Essential: Please e-mail to otani@otani.com.au